

Digital Arts & Humanities Commons Reception

Come to the opening reception of the Digital Arts & Humanities Commons (DAHC) this Tuesday, November 7, 11a-12p in Music 1410.

The Commons is a vibrant, accessible space for open research and interdisciplinary collaboration, bringing together faculty, graduate students, and undergraduates. Projects may take the form of makerspaces, hackerspaces, digital recording and editing kiosks or open labs.

Join us for light refreshments! See the new vision for the Commons, discuss how DAHC will support research and pedagogy in the Arts & Humanities, and learn how to propose projects and apply for commons space and resources!
